

FOR IMMEDIATE USE – 1st June 2010

K HOME INTERNATIONAL LIMITED
CORPORATE PARTNERS FOR BUTTERWICK HOSPICE

Peter Kay and Graham Leggatt-Chidgey at Corporate Partners Reception, Rockcliffe Hall, May 2010.

K Home International and eight new Corporate Partners of Butterwick Hospice Care from all over the region were recognised at a reception on Friday, 14th May 2010.

Around 100 business leaders attended the event, which took place at Rockcliffe Hall, the new luxury hotel, spa and golf resort in Hurworth near Darlington.

Many businesses who were represented are already corporate sponsors of the Butterwick, which has facilities in Stockton and Bishop Auckland and is a key employer in the area, with about 250 staff and 500 volunteers, supporting about 1,700 people and their families each year.

The Chief Executive of Butterwick Hospice Care, Graham Leggatt-Chidgey said: 'Our corporate partnerships are very important to us, especially in these testing times, and they benefit both the hospice and the organisations. Being able to recognise nine new partners on Friday was significant and we are very grateful to them all.'

FOR IMMEDIATE USE – 1st June 2010

The hospice provides free specialist palliative care in Teesside, County Durham, North Yorkshire and Wearside to those with life limiting illnesses and their families.

The reception is one of a series the Butterwick holds regionally to promote the benefits of partnerships and was compered by Sue Campbell, Director of Media Messages Limited, itself a Butterwick Corporate Partner.
